

Worldwide IVC Vaulting Ranking

1. Worldwide IVC Vaulting Ranking for Individuals

- 1.1. Separate Rankings are established for Female and Male Vaulters.
- 1.2. The IVC World Vaulting Ranking for Individuals is based on the 3 best final scores obtained within the previous 12 months at individual competitions on CVIs.
- 1.3. If the final score is lower than 90 % of the score after the first round, 90% of the score of the first round are taken into account.
Only 90% of the score achieved by vaulters, who did not qualify for the second round, are counted.
80% of the score achieved at 1* competitions are counted.
110% of the score achieved at Continental Championships are counted.
120% of the score achieved at World Championships are counted.
- 1.4. The ranking is updated after each CVI or monthly.

2. Worldwide IVC Vaulting Ranking for Teams

- 2.1. Separate Rankings are established for Senior and Junior Teams.
- 2.2. The IVC World Vaulting Ranking for Teams is based on their 3 best final scores obtained at team 1* and 2* competitions on CVIs during the previous 12 months.
- 2.3. 100% of the scores obtained at CVI 2* competitions and 80% of the scores at CVI 1* competitions are counted.
If the final score is lower than 90 % of the score for the first round, 90% of the score after the first round are taken into account.
90% of the score achieved by teams, who did not qualify for the second round, are counted.
110% of the score achieved at Continental Championships are counted.
120% of the score achieved at World Championships are counted.

3. IVC World Masters

The three best placed Female Individuals, Male Individuals and Senior Teams of the season 2006/2007 (according to the IVC World Ranking of April 2007) will be invited to participate in the IVC World Masters on 26th and 27th May 2007.

This Free Test class will be held in the frame of the Withsun Competition in Wiesbaden (Ger), also comprising CDI 3* and CSI 3* and driving events.

The prize money for the winners of each vaulting class will be 1000 euros. The stabling for the horses will be free of charge.